THE LAW OF LIFE

The Tree that never had to fight
For sun and sky and air and light
That stood out in the open plain
And always got its share of rain
Never became a forest king
But lived and died a scrubby thing

The man who never had to toil
Who never had to win his share
Of sun and light and sky and air
Never became a manly man
But lived and died as he began

Good timber does not grow in ease
The stronger the wind the tougher the trees
The farther the sky the greater the length
The more the storm the more the strength
By sun and cold by rains and snows
In tree and man good timber grows
