Remember the paragraphs that seem to have no home in the last STAG? Here they are in correct sequence; sorry.

COUNCIL HISTORY BOOK:
CHALLENGE AND OPPORTUNITY

Time is running out for the special $5.00 discount on the prepublishing offer.

Our "challenge" can be your "opportunity" to save and support our Lodge. The profits from this project will be placed in an account to be used for a future large scale camp improvement project.

By reserving a copy now you can save $5.00 and also sleep assured that you won't be left out.

The prepublishing price is $25.00. After the release of the book the price will be $30.00.

When can I expect my copy? Well, the printer has all but the final sections which are being checked for the final approval to insure total accuracy of detail. The date? How about May 30th?

ONE OF THE BEST

Everyone who attended had an exceptional weekend of fellowship. It was wonderful!!! The 250 people in attendance participated in a Brotherhood Ceremony, workshops on Indian costuming, places to go camping, publications, and the Stompin'!! T. McBride claimed "It was the best I've ever seen." Thanks to all who helped.

Who can forget--the Tuscazoar tippettes; the large tee pee; the souvineers; the FOOD(*&@#%); the Stompin'; the Brotherhood Ceremony; and the fellowship with other Lodges' members. See you at the next Conclave.

EXECUTIVE COMMITTEE MEETING ON
MAY 26th AT 7:00 AT TRINITY
UNITED CHURCH OF CHRIST.

Fellow Arrowmen,

As many of you know, the weekend of April 30, May 1-2, was the 1982 Section 5-B Conclave, held at Camp Tuscazoar. For those of you who missed it, you missed what was said to be the greatest event in many years. Over two-hundred, twenty Arrowmen from eight lodges in northeastern Ohio gathered for a terrific weekend of learning, fun and excitement.

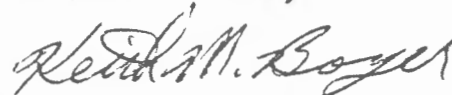

The main purpose of this letter is to thank all those members of Sippo Lodge who helped to make this event the great success that it was. You are all to be commended for your great dedication and cheerful service to the lodge and section.

I would like to give special thanks and recognition to Jim Casler and Ken Flanagan for their overwhelming dedication and service. It was their super and crazy ideas that lead to one of the greatest conclaves ever.

Other persons deserving special thanks and recognition for their exceptional service are: committee chairmen, Todd Loxley, Mark Miller, and Steve Polye; members Dan Berlyoung, and Darrel Rowland; and advisers, Dan Spies, Ross Davidson, Kirk Albrecht, Steve Wilder, Gerald Scott, Karl Herman, Dave Herritt, Jeff Lotze, Al Brown, and Dave Van Swearingen.

These members along with the many others who helped to prepare for the conclave are to be congratulated for a job well done. THANK YOU.

IN Brotherhood,

1982 Lodge Chief

Well now you can't say the Lodge never gave you anything. The Spring Fellowship will be held on June 11 and 12 and it is absolutely FREE. Just be there by 8:00 p.m. Friday to sign in at Hoover Lodge so a final count can be taken. If you're not there by 8:00, send word with someone that you will be there. A cracker barrel Friday and Breakfast Saturday will be served. Share in Cheerful Service and Fellowship until late Saturday afternoon. See you there.

DUE-WA DUE-WA

Yes that oldie but goodie, pay your dues is back again. Number one on the Lodge top 377 chart.

It is a major concern of the Lodge officers because of its unpopularity. Remember, don't miss out, send your dues before midnight tonight. They are $4.00 and payable to:

Sipp-O Lodge
Buckeye Council, Inc.

TRAIL AWARD?

Our Lodge is to develop a connecting link between the Zoar Valley and Towpath trails.

This link will follow the old Ohio Erie Canal towpath and the Tuscarawas River from the southern limits of Massillon to the Fort Laurens State Memorial.

We need the help of scout troops to make this development. The troops could, by clearing trails, qualify for part of the Historic Trails Award.

If your troop is interested in this as a project, contact Mr. Larry Kenney, trails committee advisor, for trail section assignment. Call 837-9084.
