THE VIGIL OBLIGATION

With profound resolution, we of the Vigil Honor, Wimachtendienk, Wingolauchsik, Witahmeui, do solemnly agree to assume the obligation of true leadership in service, setting the example of unselfish aim and purpose, so far as God shall give us strength and opportunity.

OBLIGATION OF THE ORDER OF THE ARROW

I, do hereby promise on my honor as a Scout, that I will always and faithfully observe and preserve the traditions of the Order of the Arrow, Wimachtendienk, Wingolauchsik, Witahemui, which I have now received. I will always regard the ties of brotherhood in the Order of the Arrow as lasting, and will seek to preserve a cheerful spirit even in the midst of irksome tasks and weighty responsibilities, and will endeavor, so far as in my power lites, to be unselfish in service and devotion to the welfare of others.

THE VIGIL HONOR

The Vigil Honor is the highest honor that the Order of the Arrow can bestow upon its members for service to their lodge and local council. It dates back to the year 1915, when its founder, E. Urner Goodman, became the first Vigil Honor member. Since then, thousands of members have been accorded this honor.

It is a high mark of distinction and recognition reserved for those Scout, Explorer, and Scouter members of the Order who, by reason of exceptional service, personal effort, and unselfish interest, have made distinguished contributions beyond the immediate responsibilities of their position or office to one or more of the following: their lodge, the Order of the Arrow, Scouting, or their Scout camp. Under no circumstances should tenure in Scouting or the Order be considered as ample reason for Vigil Honor recommendation.

Vigil Honor members have an honorable tradition to uphold. They must at all times conduct themselves in accordance with the ideals of Scouting, the Order of the Arrow, and the Vigil Honor. Membership cannot be won by a person's conscious endeavor. It comes as a recognition of his altruistic leadership in service. This fact should be given careful consideration in the selection of candidates for membership. The Vigil Honor has successfully fulfilled a very definite and satisfactory service to the Order of the Arrow, to Scouting, and to the individual members. Its continued success depends on the care with which future members are selected and on the maintenance by its members of the high ideals of service to others for which the Vigil Honor has always been known.
