CONCLAVE UPDATE

What? You haven't turned in your reservation for the 16th Annual Section 5-B Conclave? It's due April 1st, so you don't have much time. The cost is $16.00 and can be paid at the Scout Service Center. The gala gathering at Camp Manatoc takes place on the weekend of April 29, 30, and May 1. Once again, T-shirts will be available for $5.00 each. Be sure to give your size on the reservation form. If you have any questions about this, contact Ken Flanagan(862-2718) in the evening or Jim Cassler(456-8319) during the day. So come join the eight lodges of northeastern Ohio to exchange ideas and annihilate them in healthy competition. See you there!!

NOAC: IT'S CLOSER THAN YOU THINK

Just a reminder to those who are planning on attending the funnest experience one Arrowman can handle: your reservation fee of $50.00 is due by April 1st. This covers food, lodging, and programs lasting from August 14th to the 18th. Reserve your spot now! If you have any questions, call Doug Brown(477-8463) or Larry Kramer(875-9873). So join us at Colorado State University in Fort Collins, Colorado for the National Order of the Arrow Conference. Don't be square--BE THERE!!!

INDIAN UPDATE

The Spring Ordeal is right around the corner, and we will be needing people for Ordeal, pre-Ordeal, and Brotherhood teams. We will also be needing a lot of help at the 5-B Conclave in April and the Scout-o-Rama in May. If you are interested in any of the above, contact me at 868-5082.

TOWPATH TRAIL

For those who aren't familiar with the Towpath Trail, it is a hiking trail that mules use to pull barges up the canal running from Lock 4 Park in Canal Fulton to Massillon. It is also used by Scouts, though, and for that reason must be maintained. A workday has been set for May 21st. Don't be a stubborn mule; contact Chris Houser at 492-0716 for details.
