September 2012

Chiefly Ambitions?

For anyone with Chiefly ambitions, you must meet with our Scout Executive before submitting your name for Lodge Chief. Make an appointment. Fall Fellowship is usually lightly attended. Think of ways to get Arrowmen there to vote. Have a plan B and a plan C ready. Remember, we need everyone working together to make it happen for Sipp-O. Good Luck everyone

A Message from Our Lodge Advisor

Brothers,

Much has transpired since our last communication. This past Summer found us all quite busy hosting the various Order of Arrow events at Seven Ranges Summer Camp.

Have you been to the H.A.W.K. Circle at Camp Akela lately? A kind benefactor has carved two hawk emblems for our use. One is a large circular totem of a hawk which serves as an entrance symbol on the path into the circle. The other, in the circle itself, is a hawk ready to fly. The images are wonderful symbols for our Scouts to help prepare them to understand the wisdom of the Chief. Thank you benefactors, ceremonialists and members who all work together to make H.A.W. K. a crowning experience for our WEBELOS.

At Camp Algonkin, the weather was favorable allowing us to perform the Call-Out ceremony and Brotherhood ceremony every week. Thanks to all the ceremonialists, trail guides and Arrowmen that pulled together to make it happen for our Boy Scouts. It's because of all of your effort that our ceremonies are requested by Troops in camp as well as Troops and Court of Honors throughout our Council.

From July 30-Aug. 4 a Sipp-O Lodge contingent of 20 arrow men traveled to Michigan State University to attend the National Order of the Arrow Conference (NOAC). Over seven thousand Arrowmen from across the country as well as from the Far East converged on MSU to learn, encourage and enjoy fellowship. Sipp-O had an especially fun time together during the Founders Day as we challenged Arrowmen with OA trivia and handed out past patches as prizes.

A Thought of the Day, quoted from Dr. E. Urner Goodman, our founder, during the 1954 NOAC was particularly relevant. He said,

“The success of the Order depends on what each individual does in making the Order of the Arrow ideals effective. To reach our goals of service, you must:

Never give up your dreams of high adventure.

Never give up your dream of great and distinct personal service.

Never give up your dream girl who can mean so much in your life.

Never give up your dreams of the infinite God.

If you keep all these dreams, then they will ultimately come true.”

We were challenged with the idea of inheriting a great legacy and were asked to continue to build upon that legacy for the next generation.

After all of the above, we came home and hosted an Ordeal from Aug. 10-12. One hundred and seven new members were welcomed into the Order.

To new and existing members, I challenge you all to find a place to be involved. Remember our first service is to our home Troop. Does your Troop have an OA Representative? You can be that Arrowman. You can travel with your Scoutmaster and Senior Patrol Leader to the monthly Roundtable meeting and find ways to serve Troops and beyond. Service, Camping, High Adventure, Fellowship – All words that have deep meaning to an Arrowman. Where will you fit?

Our next time together will be at the Fall Fellowship held at 7 Ranges on Sept. 21-23. Please come for the fun. More importantly, please come and help us to elect our next year leaders. Maybe you could be one of them. Don't forget to sign up and turn out for just $15. Our legacy will be where you wish for us to go.

Serving together,
Tony Miller, Lodge Advisor

SERVICE – SERVICE – SERVICE

Sipp-O Lodge is in need of a conscientious youth(s) that recognizes the need for cheerful service. If you are interested please contact your Lodge Chief or myself at c4096@hotmail.com

The Lodge has three service commitments each year:

- One to the Camp
- One to Council
- One to the Community

The Camp service project for this year is being done at this time. A pavilion is being built in the Buzzard's Beak campsite. Some may remember, and may even have helped build this campsite. It gets its name from a former Lodge Advisor's nickname. We are proud of our Lodge and our service each year. This is necessary for the Lodge to continue its record of Journey-to-Excellence Gold.

Below are the projects that have been recorded as far as I know. If someone can remember projects further back in time, or knows of any error in those listed, please let me know.

Sipp-O Lodge Camp service projects:

- 2002: The program barn at the Bridge Builder's Amphitheater
- 2003: The Adena campsite pavilion
- 2004: The renovation of the Adena shower facility to make it handicap accessible
- 2005: The overhang at the Shotgun range shelter
- 2006: The Buzzard's Beak campsite built
- 2007: The flammables building at the Maintenance building
- 2008: The OA camp signposts near the Monuments at each end of camp
- 2009: Built tent platform halves at maintenance
- 2010: Built tent platforms halves at maintenance
- 2011: Constructed Truax Trail, from Admin. to Dining Hall & Adena Lift station wooden screen

2012: Paid for the Buzzard Beak Pavilion; built by the Marines.

Respectfully submitted,
Tim Aurand
Advisor to the Service Committee

Chiefly Speaking

Fall Fellowship will be September 21-23. At Fellowship there will be games, food, bonding, and last but not least patch trading. Believe me, you don't want to miss this! After some fellowshipping is one of the most important events that we have. We will be electing new officers. This year there are many candidates for Lodge Chief. So come, have some fun, and help us decide who will lead our Lodge.

On a personal note, I will soon be shipping out for the Air Force. This will leave a vacancy for Lodge Chief. I challenge each Arrowmen to try to make it to Fall Fellowship and make your decision on who you believe can lead our great Lodge.

With that said I would like to thank everyone who helped out this year. All of you worked together to make this year go smoothly. Thank you.

Your Chief, James Lovett

News from NOAC

A few weeks ago, during the 7th period of summer camp, Sipp-O Lodge sent a contingent to the National Order of the Arrow Conference. While there the Arrowmen got to experience the best that the OA had to offer. From the tastful and filling meals, to the patch trading, to all the different arena shows.

For four days the boys took part in classes each morning that involved ceremonies, leadership, lodge activities, and training. These classes gave the Arrowmen a chance to see what a lot of the other lodges are like from around the country.

Each night the entire conference would gather at the stadium for a show. During these shows there were guest speakers, bands, and the best of all the dance group from America's Got Talent; Fighting Gravity. The performances were amazing to watch and gave meaning to what the OA is and what it's all about.

During the day Arrowmen could take part in various activities such as the action center that was set up, including climbing, blow up slides, archery, golfing and a variety of other things. There was the OA museum in which you could view the history of the Order of the Arrow.

In the ice arena several booths were set up with activities and information on thing such as OA high adventure and the new Jamboree site. During Founder's Day Sipp-O Lodge set up a tent and rewarded Scouts with prizes for correctly answering OA trivia questions.

One of the bigger trends at NOAC was the patch trading, it started with the Trade-O-Ree the day before NOAC started and continued all through the week. Hundreds of Scouts would set up their displays anywhere they could to trade for the patches that were hot on the market, Sipp-O Lodge's set was one that was high in the rankings and hard to get if you wanted the whole set. This patch trading finally wrapped up at about 4a.m. the morning of the day everyone was packing up and leaving. As a fellow Arrowman and NOAC participant I would encourage anyone who is looking to gain the full experience of the Order of the Arrow to attend the next National Order of the Arrow Conference.

Summer Activities

All ceremonies went well with the help of several outstanding individuals including: Jared Withers, Mark Reed, Nathan Miller, Thomas Henthorne, and James Lovett. There were a few mishaps, however, everything worked out.

Ceremonialists are always needed so please contact me.

A new IA Chairman will be needed for next year, if anyone is interested.

HAWK

The H.A.W.K. ceremony this summer was very successful and continued to improve. However, we need people for next year and will need someone to take over as H.A.W.K. Chairman.
